ACCESS FUNDING, LLC, et al.,

Defendants.

Case No. 1-16-cv-03759-ELH

[PROPOSED] STIPULATED FINAL JUDGMENT AND ORDER
AGAINST ACCESS FUNDING, LLC; ACCESS HOLDING, LLC; LEE JUNDANIAN; AND RAFFI BOGHOSIAN

ELH

The Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (Bureau) commenced this civil action on November 21, 2016, to obtain injunctive and monetary relief and civil penalties from Access Funding, LLC, Access Holding, LLC, Reliance Funding, LLC, Lee Jundanian, Raffi Boghosian, Michael Borkowski, and Charles Smith. The Bureau filed an Amended Complaint (Complaint) on December 13, 2017. The Complaint alleges violations of §§ 1031 and 1036 of the Consumer Financial Protection Act of 2010 (CFPA), 12 U.S.C. §§ 5531, 5536, in connection with unfair, abusive, and deceptive practices related to the transfer of consumers' future structured-settlement payments in exchange for immediate lump-sum payments.

The Bureau and the Access Funding Defendants (Access Funding, LLC; Access Holding, LLC; Jundanian, and Boghosian, collectively) agree to entry of this Stipulated Final Judgment and Order (Order), without adjudication of any issue of fact or law, to settle and resolve all matters in dispute arising from the conduct alleged against the Access Funding Defendants in the Complaint.

FINDINGS

1. Access Funding, a wholly owned subsidiary of Access Holding, is a limited-liability company that facilitated the transfer of payment streams from structured-settlement holders, a practice referred to as “structured-settlement factoring.” Access Funding additionally conducted business as “Assoc LLC” and “En Cor LLC.”

2. Defendant Jundanian had an ownership interest in Access Holding from its inception to its dissolution. He served as CEO of Access Funding from February 2013 to May 2014. After May 2014, he was an advisor to Access Funding.

3. Defendant Boghosian had an ownership interest in Access Holding from May 2014 to its dissolution. He served as COO of Access Funding from May 2014 to October 2015.

4. This Court has jurisdiction over the Bureau and the Access Funding Defendants and the subject matter of this action.

5. The Access Funding Defendants neither admit nor deny the allegations in the Complaint or the Findings in this Order, except that the Access Funding Defendants admit the facts necessary to establish the Court’s jurisdiction over them and the subject matter of this action.

6. The Access Funding Defendants waive all rights to seek judicial review or otherwise challenge or contest the validity of this Order and any claim they may have under the Equal Access to Justice Act, 28 U.S.C. § 2412, concerning the prosecution of this action to the date of this Order. The Bureau and the Access Funding Defendants agree to bear their own costs and expenses, including, without limitation, attorneys' fees.

7. Entry of this Order is in the public interest.

CONDUCT PROVISIONS

I.

Prohibited Conduct

IT IS ORDERED that:

15. The Access Funding Defendants and their officers, agents, servants, employees, and attorneys, and all other persons in active concert or participation with them who have actual notice of this Order, whether acting directly or indirectly, may not violate §§ 1031 and 1036(a)(1)(B) of the CFPA, 12 U.S.C. §§ 5531, 5536(a)(1)(B).

16. The Access Funding Defendants and their officers, agents, servants, employees, and attorneys, and all other persons in active concert or participation with them who have actual notice of this Order, whether acting directly or indirectly, in connection with the transfer of payment streams from structured-settlement holders, may not:

- a. misrepresent, expressly or impliedly:
 - i. the relationship between Defendants and any provider of independent professional advice;

ii. any other fact material to consumers, such as the material risks, total costs, or conditions of any Advance;

b. take unreasonable advantage of consumers' lack of understanding of the material risks, costs, or conditions of any Advance.

17. The Access Funding Defendants, whether acting directly or indirectly, shall not refer consumers to a specific individual or for-profit entity for advice concerning any Structured-Settlement Transaction, including for independent professional advice.

18. Within 7 days of the Effective Date of this Order, the Access Funding Defendants shall provide the Maryland Office of Attorney General a copy of this Order.

II.

Customer Information

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

19. The Access Funding Defendants and all other persons in active concert or participation with them who receive actual notice of this Order, whether acting directly or indirectly, may not disclose, use, or benefit from an Affected Consumer's information, including the name, address, telephone number, email address, Social Security number, other identifying information, or any data that enables access to an Affected Consumer's account (including a credit card, bank account, or other financial account), that the Access Funding Defendants obtained before the Effective Date in connection with any Structured-Settlement Transaction. However, an Affected Consumer's information may be disclosed if requested by a government agency or required by law, regulation, court order, or as required in an administrative or regulatory proceeding.

MONETARY PROVISIONS

III.

Order to Pay Disgorgement

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

20. A judgment for disgorgement is entered in favor of the Bureau and against the Access Funding Defendants, jointly and severally, in the amount of $40,000.

21. Within 10 days of the Effective Date, the Access Funding Defendants must pay to the Bureau, by wire transfer to the Bureau or to the Bureau's agent, and according to the Bureau's wiring instructions, $40,000 in full satisfaction of the judgment as ordered in Paragraph 20 of this Section.

22. The Bureau shall deposit these funds in the U.S. Treasury as disgorgement. Defendant will have no right to challenge any actions that the Bureau or its representatives may take under this paragraph.

Civil Money Penalty

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

23. Under § 1055(c) of the CFPA, 12 U.S.C. § 5565(c), by reason of the violations of law alleged in Counts IV and V of the Complaint, and taking into account the factors in 12 U.S.C. § 5565(c)(3), the Access Funding Defendants, jointly and severally, must pay a civil money penalty of $10,000 to the Bureau.

24. Within 10 days of the Effective Date, the Access Funding Defendants must pay the civil money penalty by wire transfer to the Bureau or to the Bureau's agent in compliance with the Bureau's wiring instructions.

25. The civil money penalty will be deposited in the Civil Penalty Fund of the Bureau as required by § 1017(d) of the CFPB, 12 U.S.C. § 5497(d).

26. The Access Funding Defendants must treat the civil money penalty paid under this Order as a penalty paid to the government for all purposes. Regardless of how the Bureau ultimately uses those funds, the Access Funding Defendants may not:

- a. claim, assert, or apply for a tax deduction, tax credit, or any other tax benefit for any civil money penalty paid under this Order; or
- b. seek or accept, directly or indirectly, reimbursement or indemnification from any source, including but not limited to payment made under any insurance policy, with regard to any civil money penalty paid under this Order.

27. The Access Funding Defendants agree that the civil penalty imposed by the Order represents a civil penalty owed to the United States Government, is not compensation for actual pecuniary loss, and, thus, as to them, it is not subject to discharge under the Bankruptcy Code under 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(7).

IV.

Additional Monetary Provisions

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

28. In the event of any default on the Access Funding Defendants' obligations to make payment under this Order, interest, computed under 28 U.S.C. § 1961, as amended, will accrue on any outstanding amounts not paid from the date of default to the date of payment, and will immediately become due and payable.

29. The Access Funding Defendants relinquish all dominion, control, and title to the funds paid under this Order to the fullest extent permitted by law, and no part of the funds may be returned to them.

30. The facts alleged in the Complaint will be taken as true solely for the purposes noted herein and will be given collateral estoppel effect, without further proof, in any proceeding based on the entry of the Order, or in any subsequent civil litigation only by or on behalf of the Bureau in a proceeding to enforce its rights to any payment or monetary judgment under this Order such as a nondischargeability complaint in any bankruptcy case.

31. The facts alleged in the Complaint establish all elements necessary to sustain an action by the Bureau under Section 523(a)(2)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(2)(A), and for such purposes this Order will have collateral estoppel effect against the Access Funding Defendants, even in such Defendants' capacities as debtors-in-possession.

32. Under 31 U.S.C. § 7701, the Access Funding Defendants, unless they have already done so, must furnish to the Bureau their taxpayer-identification numbers, which may be used for purposes of collecting and reporting on any delinquent amount arising out of this Order.

33. Within 30 days of the entry of a final judgment, consent order, or settlement in a Related Consumer Action, the Access Funding Defendants must notify the Bureau of the final judgment, consent order, or settlement in writing. That notification must indicate the amount of redress, if any, that the Access Funding Defendants paid or are required to pay to Affected Consumers and describe the consumers or classes of consumers to whom that redress has been or will be paid. To preserve the deterrent effect of the civil money penalty in any Related Consumer Action, the Access Funding Defendants may not argue that they are entitled to, nor may they benefit by, any offset or reduction of any monetary remedies imposed in the Related Consumer Action because of the civil money penalty paid in this action or because of any payment that the Bureau makes from the Civil Penalty Fund. If the court in any Related Consumer Action offsets or otherwise reduces the amount of compensatory monetary remedies imposed against the Access Funding Defendants based on the civil money penalty paid in this action or based on any payment that the Bureau makes from the Civil Penalty Fund, the Access Funding Defendants must, within 30 days after entry of a final order granting such offset or reduction, notify the Bureau and pay the amount of the offset or reduction to the U.S. Treasury. Such a payment will not be considered an additional civil money penalty and will not change the amount of the civil money penalty imposed in this action.

34. Under § 604(a)(I) of the Fair Credit Reporting Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1681b(a)(1), any consumer-reporting agency may furnish to the Bureau a consumer report concerning Defendants Jundanian and Boghosian, and any such report may be used for purposes of collecting and reporting on any delinquent amount arising out of this Order.

COMPLIANCE PROVISIONS

V.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

37. The Access Funding Defendants must report any changes in the information required to be submitted under Paragraph 36 at least 30 days before the change or as soon as practicable after the learning about the change, whichever is sooner.

38. Within 90 days of the Effective Date, and again one year after the Effective Date, the Access Funding Defendants must each submit to the Enforcement Director an accurate written compliance progress report sworn to under penalty of perjury (Compliance Report), which, at a minimum:

- a. lists each applicable paragraph and subparagraph of the Order and describes in detail the manner and form in which that Defendant has complied with each such paragraph and subparagraph of this Order; and
