Private and shared offices available for short term and long term rentals. Virtual and part time options are available. Offices come furnished and you have access to shared conference rooms, break rooms, phone and internet services and shared reception. Ideal for a small business and individuals.

The Westview Village center in Frederick occupies a prominent location that's highly visible from nearby MD Route 85 (Buckeystown Pike). Set in a vibrant business community not far from I-270, the office space is on the second floor above street-level retail and looks out over an attractive landscaped area and plenty of parking. The two-story building is brick-clad and includes some corner offices that allow natural light to flood in. Frederick is a hub for advanced technology companies and home to global corporations specializing in engineering, biosciences, life sciences, IT and pharmaceuticals. It also boasts thriving agriculture and manufacturing sectors. Businesses come here for the strategic location, transport network, highly skilled workforce and strong entrepreneurial and business support that helps companies grow and develop. The county offers ready access to major shipping routes and airports, and highways to markets in New York, Philadelphia and Washington DC.
