WHAT WE REQUIRE (We Will Pay For a Legal SEO Opinion Letter)

We are looking for a well known US-Based SEO expert to provide us with their written expert opinion. The letter should state (common sense to the members of this forum) what main things could affect search engine results. For example;

- a) Search engine results can be affected by your geographic location,
- b) Search engine results can be affected by your past searches,
- c) Search engine results could be affected by spyware, viruses, Trojans etc.
- d) Whether the individual doing the searches is personally logged into Google, not logged into Google, logged in from someone else's account or the computer is available to more than one individual who has previously done Google searches.

The opinion needs to be on company letterhead, signed with a short bio from the author and the writer needs to be a recognized a US-based SEO authority.

The opinion letter needs to provide easily verifiable 3rd party references (citations) for each and every statement regarding what affects search results.
