It is because of the nation's largest competitors; Woodbridge Investments, JG Wentworth and a handful of others that you are able to ensure that you are getting the largest lump sum possible.

You can call or go online and get a free quote for selling your settlement right away! It only takes a few minutes to find out what your payments are worth.

Courteous and knowledgeable professionals from these companies will give you a quote, explain how you can determine the amount of money you need and want, and guide you through the entire process.

All you need is three (3)

You only need to know three things about your payments to get your free quote.

1

How much? How much are your payments, what is the dollar amount you receive?

How often? How often do you receive your payments? Are you receiving periodic payments monthly, yearly, etc.....

How many? How many payments or how long will you be receiving your payments? Do you want to sell all or a portion of your future payments?

2

These three key components will determine how large a lump sum you will receive when you sell your future insurance payments, annuity payments, or structured settlement.

Even if you have previously sold payments, you can still get a quote to see how much your remaining payments are worth.

Today's structured settlement and annuity recipients have a choice in how they will receive their money. You can choose to accept the payments you currently receive or you can get a lump sum now to use for whatever you decide.
